With over 600 million devices and the people behind them covered, McAfee leads the industry when it comes to keeping the world safer online. Protect yourself against compromised devices, privacy leaks and other threats with a McAfee Total Protection subscription. Until March 31, 2024, Mastercard cardholders get a 13-month subscription for $29.50, covering up to five devices.

Your subscription includes:

- Award-winning antivirus protection to protect your personal information and devices
- A 13-month complimentary subscription to TechMate, offering best-in-class diagnostics to quickly identify and address security issues
- Password manager to keep all your passwords locked away and securely stored in a single location
- Web protection for safer browsing
- A secure VPN so you can securely access public Wi-Fi from your devices

Don't leave anything to chance. Trust the security experts at McAfee. Learn more at mcafee.com/mastercard.

*Offer expires 3/31/2024. New customers who pay for their first annual McAfee Total Protection for Mastercard subscription using a U.S.-issued Mastercard credit card will receive a special introductory price on a 13-month subscription term. Customers will also receive 13 months of McAfee TechMate at no additional cost. Limit one offer per cardholder. Unless you cancel your initial 13-month subscription at least 30 days before it expires, you will be charged the renewal subscription price in effect at the time of your renewal, and it will renew automatically for a 12-month term. You can cancel at any time by accessing your My Account page. For full terms and conditions, visit mcafee.com/mastercard.
